A message from Pam Hammen, Principal of Verona Area High School...

Dear Verona Area High School Families:

As this short summer winds down, I find myself thinking about the new school year with so much anticipation. To be among some of the finest educators and learners around is such an honor and one that I do not take for granted. I pay attention to all the moments in each day and savor them.

Our Wildcat family is strong and proud and able to accomplish great things. After all, our equation, (passionate staff + awe-inspiring students) can only equal one thing...GREATNESS. Let's get this year rolling and watch as greatness reveals itself.
